

TRACY MARTIN SHEARER

Tracy has been a Hawkins instructor for more than 25 years! She began as an Acting instructor, and now teaches several levels of both Acting and Stage Vocals. She is also the proud Vocal Director of Hawkins' Musical Theatre Company. In addition to Hawkins, Tracy has been a Director, Vocal Director and Instructor for the Department of Theatre Arts & Film at American River College for 30 years. Some of the productions she has directed include Lost Girl, Animal Crackers, The Tempest, Stop Kiss, Pride & Prejudice, and Arcadia, with children's shows that range from Charlotte's Web to Peter Pan. She has worked for The Show Below, Fair Oaks Theatre Festival, and Left Coast Productions in San Francisco. Tracy has a Bachelor of Music from University of the Pacific, and her vocal directing credits include nearly 70 productions for theatre that include the Department of Drama & Dance at CSUS, Runaway Stage Productions, ARC Theatre, Stage Right Productions, FOTF and more. The classes at Hawkins are near and dear to Tracy's heart, having raised two daughters who took dance and singing classes here. She looks forward every year to helping her students find joy and skill in their performance art of choice.
