

Franchesca Sonoyama

Franchesca Sonoyama has been an arts educator for the last 15 years teaching theatre arts in after-school programs, theatre camps and intensives, and bringing theatre programs to Sacramento schools and abroad as Sacramento Theatre Company's School Partnership Program Manager for the last five years. Franchesca has degrees in theatre and a Masters in Education with a specialization in teaching through the arts. She is extremely passionate about arts integration and how the arts can be a teaching and learning tool in addition to entertainment and an outlet for creative expression. Aside from teaching, she has also performed in various musical theatre productions and choral groups in the region.
